REGINALD LESLIE STOCK, OBE, 1912–2003
Following his father's footsteps, Eddie, Leslie entered Trinity at 16 and was one of four students elected to the first-year prefect body in 1928. Leslie remained at Trinity after leaving to work as an accountant and completed his degree by spending this year learning more of his trade.

He was an early supporter of all sorts of activities such as clubbing, the open air theatre, dancing, the Trinidad Cup, and occasionally when he was not at Trinity. Leslie was one of the students who fought to keep the juniorOne at Trinity.

CAMERON RABLES-RAHBULA (2003)

February 2004, Cameron won Gold in both the Men's Downhill and Super G events, one-legged division, at the 2004 Winter Olympics. Cameron Rahles-Rahbula (2003) is the only Australian athlete to win a medal at the Winter Olympics since 1998. He was diagnosed with bone cancer in 2004 and died in 2005.

Nitin Chandan Rughoonauth (2001)

VICTORIAN CONSTITUTION

Peter Pockley) (Acknowledgements to Michael Collins Persse and

OBITUARIES

John David FELTHAM (1950)

Malvern, Victoria. For service to the judiciary and to the community through a range of legal and judicial services, and to the judiciary and legal profession.

Commodore Peter Clifford MITCHELL, AO (1958)

Beyond APPM, Reg was president of the Australian College of Public Administration and the Australian Institute of Management and a member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors. He was a member of the Australian College of Public Administration and a member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors. He was a member of the Australian College of Public Administration and the Australian Institute of Management and a member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors.

William John (Bill) MEREDITH (1940)

THOMAS HENRY TIMPSON, AO

1940–2004

JOAN LENNOX STRANAHAN

1934–2004

The Revd Tom Timpson entered Trinity from Camberwell Grammar School in March 1940. He returned to his old school, Camberwell Grammar, as Headmaster in 1985–89. This was interrupted during 1940–45 when he saw service in the Second World War.

A pioneer of interaction between the academic and the practical worlds, he was particularly proud of his role in the introduction of a pastoral care system and the careful selection and appointment of staff. He gave expression to his concern for the well-being of students.

John David FELTHAM (1950) was awarded a Master of Arts with Honours in 1974 by the University of Melbourne. He was appointed as Secretary of the Victorian Universities and Schools Examinations Board. He followed this by becoming a University Lecturer in Physics and a Fellow at the Commonwealth Textile, Clothing and Footwear Research Association in Melbourne. He was also a research associate at the Commonwealth Administrative Appeals Tribunal. He was an expert on textile and clothing technology and was awarded an OAM in 1991 for his contribution to the textile industry.

Professor Gordon Watson (1959) is working full time at a private research institute. He is interested in developing new drugs for the treatment of cancer.

Terry O'Gorman (1941) died at age 63 on 29 January 2004. Terry is survived by his wife Patricia and sons Timmy and Jayme. Terry worked for the Australian Bureau of Statistics for 31 years before becoming a consultant. He is remembered for his service to many organisations and charities.

Bruce Burnley ST CLAIR (1940) died on 8 April 2004, having fought cancer for many years. Bruce was a long-standing member of the Victorian Bar and a former President of the Victorian Bar Association. He was a leading figure in the Victorian Bar and a member of the Victorian Bar Council. He was a former President of the Australian Bar Council. He was a past President of the Australian Bar Council and a former President of the Victorian Bar.

Harry Wilfred NUNN, OAM (1937) was a member of the Victorian Bar and a long-standing member of the Victorian Bar Association. He was a former President of the Victorian Bar Association. He was a past President of the Victorian Bar Association and a former President of the Australian Bar Council. He was a past President of the Australian Bar Council and a former President of the Victorian Bar. He was a former President of the Australian Bar Council and a former President of the Victorian Bar. He was the President of the Australian Bar Council and a past President of the Victorian Bar.

John David FELTHAM (1950) was awarded a Master of Arts with Honours in 1974 by the University of Melbourne. He was appointed as Secretary of the Victorian Universities and Schools Examinations Board. He followed this by becoming a University Lecturer in Physics and a Fellow at the Commonwealth Textile, Clothing and Footwear Research Association in Melbourne. He was also a research associate at the Commonwealth Administrative Appeals Tribunal. He was an expert on textile and clothing technology and was awarded an OAM in 1991 for his contribution to the textile industry.

Professor Gordon Watson (1959) is working full time at a private research institute. He is interested in developing new drugs for the treatment of cancer.

Terry O'Gorman (1941) died at age 63 on 29 January 2004. Terry is survived by his wife Patricia and sons Timmy and Jayme. Terry worked for the Australian Bureau of Statistics for 31 years before becoming a consultant. He is remembered for his service to many organisations and charities.

Bruce Burnley ST CLAIR (1940) died on 8 April 2004, having fought cancer for many years. Bruce was a long-standing member of the Victorian Bar and a former President of the Victorian Bar Association. He was a leading figure in the Victorian Bar and a member of the Victorian Bar Council. He was a past President of the Australian Bar Council. He was a past President of the Australian Bar Council and a former President of the Victorian Bar. He was the President of the Australian Bar Council and a past President of the Victorian Bar.

Harry Wilfred NUNN, OAM (1937) was a member of the Victorian Bar and a long-standing member of the Victorian Bar Association. He was a former President of the Victorian Bar Association. He was a past President of the Victorian Bar Association and a former President of the Australian Bar Council. He was a past President of the Australian Bar Council and a former President of the Victorian Bar. He was the President of the Australian Bar Council and a past President of the Victorian Bar.

John David FELTHAM (1950) was awarded a Master of Arts with Honours in 1974 by the University of Melbourne. He was appointed as Secretary of the Victorian Universities and Schools Examinations Board. He followed this by becoming a University Lecturer in Physics and a Fellow at the Commonwealth Textile, Clothing and Footwear Research Association in Melbourne. He was also a research associate at the Commonwealth Administrative Appeals Tribunal. He was an expert on textile and clothing technology and was awarded an OAM in 1991 for his contribution to the textile industry.

Professor Gordon Watson (1959) is working full time at a private research institute. He is interested in developing new drugs for the treatment of cancer.

Terry O'Gorman (1941) died at age 63 on 29 January 2004. Terry is survived by his wife Patricia and sons Timmy and Jayme. Terry worked for the Australian Bureau of Statistics for 31 years before becoming a consultant. He is remembered for his service to many organisations and charities.

Bruce Burnley ST CLAIR (1940) died on 8 April 2004, having fought cancer for many years. Bruce was a long-standing member of the Victorian Bar and a former President of the Victorian Bar Association. He was a leading figure in the Victorian Bar and a member of the Victorian Bar Council. He was a past President of the Australian Bar Council. He was a past President of the Australian Bar Council and a former President of the Victorian Bar. He was the President of the Australian Bar Council and a past President of the Victorian Bar.

Harry Wilfred NUNN, OAM (1937) was a member of the Victorian Bar and a long-standing member of the Victorian Bar Association. He was a former President of the Victorian Bar Association. He was a past President of the Victorian Bar Association and a former President of the Australian Bar Council. He was a past President of the Australian Bar Council and a former President of the Victorian Bar. He was the President of the Australian Bar Council and a past President of the Victorian Bar.

John David FELTHAM (1950) was awarded a Master of Arts with Honours in 1974 by the University of Melbourne. He was appointed as Secretary of the Victorian Universities and Schools Examinations Board. He followed this by becoming a University Lecturer in Physics and a Fellow at the Commonwealth Textile, Clothing and Footwear Research Association in Melbourne. He was also a research associate at the Commonwealth Administrative Appeals Tribunal. He was an expert on textile and clothing technology and was awarded an OAM in 1991 for his contribution to the textile industry.

Professor Gordon Watson (1959) is working full time at a private research institute. He is interested in developing new drugs for the treatment of cancer.

Terry O'Gorman (1941) died at age 63 on 29 January 2004. Terry is survived by his wife Patricia and sons Timmy and Jayme. Terry worked for the Australian Bureau of Statistics for 31 years before becoming a consultant. He is remembered for his service to many organisations and charities.

Bruce Burnley ST CLAIR (1940) died on 8 April 2004, having fought cancer for many years. Bruce was a long-standing member of the Victorian Bar and a former President of the Victorian Bar Association. He was a leading figure in the Victorian Bar and a member of the Victorian Bar Council. He was a past President of the Australian Bar Council. He was a past President of the Australian Bar Council and a former President of the Victorian Bar. He was the President of the Australian Bar Council and a past President of the Victorian Bar.

Harry Wilfred NUNN, OAM (1937) was a member of the Victorian Bar and a long-standing member of the Victorian Bar Association. He was a former President of the Victorian Bar Association. He was a past President of the Victorian Bar Association and a former President of the Australian Bar Council. He was a past President of the Australian Bar Council and a former President of the Victorian Bar. He was the President of the Australian Bar Council and a past President of the Victorian Bar.

John David FELTHAM (1950) was awarded a Master of Arts with Honours in 1974 by the University of Melbourne. He was appointed as Secretary of the Victorian Universities and Schools Examinations Board. He followed this by becoming a University Lecturer in Physics and a Fellow at the Commonwealth Textile, Clothing and Footwear Research Association in Melbourne. He was also a research associate at the Commonwealth Administrative Appeals Tribunal. He was an expert on textile and clothing technology and was awarded an OAM in 1991 for his contribution to the textile industry.

Professor Gordon Watson (1959) is working full time at a private research institute. He is interested in developing new drugs for the treatment of cancer.

Terry O'Gorman (1941) died at age 63 on 29 January 2004. Terry is survived by his wife Patricia and sons Timmy and Jayme. Terry worked for the Australian Bureau of Statistics for 31 years before becoming a consultant. He is remembered for his service to many organisations and charities.

Bruce Burnley ST CLAIR (1940) died on 8 April 2004, having fought cancer for many years. Bruce was a long-standing member of the Victorian Bar and a former President of the Victorian Bar Association. He was a leading figure in the Victorian Bar and a member of the Victorian Bar Council. He was a past President of the Australian Bar Council. He was a past President of the Australian Bar Council and a former President of the Victorian Bar. He was the President of the Australian Bar Council and a past President of the Victorian Bar.

Harry Wilfred NUNN, OAM (1937) was a member of the Victorian Bar and a long-standing member of the Victorian Bar Association. He was a former President of the Victorian Bar Association. He was a past President of the Victorian Bar Association and a former President of the Australian Bar Council. He was a past President of the Australian Bar Council and a former President of the Victorian Bar. He was the President of the Australian Bar Council and a past President of the Victorian Bar.